

At Carlow County Libraries

23rd September, 2011.

www.culturenight.ie or www.carlowlibraries.ie

Photography & Painting Exhibitions by Joseph Molloy and John Byrne

Exhibition name: Mystical Moments

John Byrne is a mature student, 1st year in Carlow Institute of Technology in Architectural Technology. John 57, born in Wexford, now living in Abbeyleix, Co. Laois. A carpenter by trade, due to the present economic situation he returned to education and completed a FETAC Level 5 in Architectural Technology in Portlaoise College in 2011.

John has always shown a love in art especially Watercolours, Charcoal, Soft Pastels and Mixed Media. He has also a keen interest in photography. John draws his inspirations for his art from nature and the world around him.

This is John's 3rd Exhibition in 2011. Previously successfully exhibited in Abbeyfest, Abbeyleix, Co. Laois and Loughboy Library, Kilkenny. Kilkenny Arts Week 2011.

At Carlow County Libraries

23rd September, 2011.

www.culturenight.ie or www.carlowlibraries.ie

Photography & Painting Exhibitions by Joseph Molloy and John Byrne

Exhibition name: Inspirations of Nature

Joseph Molloy is a mature student 1st year at Institute of Technology Carlow in Community and Social Studies. He has successfully completed 4 exhibitions over the last year with his Inspirations of Nature Photography exhibition. In Cafe Odhran, Abbeyleix, Co.

Laois, Castlecomer Library, Co. Kilkenny, Athy Heritage Centre, Athy, Co. Kildare and Loughboy Library for Kilkenny Arts Week 2011.

Joseph Exhibition is now on show in Carlow Central Library for Culture Week.

Joseph is Dublin born, 43 years old, He is living in Abbeyleix with his partner John. Joseph is a renal transplant recipient since 2007. After his transplant he returned to full time education, completing his leaving certificate in 2010, and FETAC Level 5 in Social Studies in Portlaoise College.

Joseph is a keen photographer and has built up a large collection of photographs.