

The Ask About Ireland Website is a historical website which uses the collections of Irish libraries, museums and archives. You can browse and find interesting information, stories, photographs and historic documents from the collections of local libraries across the country. Carlow Library has nine modules available Poor Law Union, Architecture and Flora and Fauna, Sport in Carlow, Transport, Carlow Folklore, Carlow in 1798, Carlow Artists, Carlow Writers.

The new Ask About Ireland website is made up of four sections.

Reading Room, Learning Zone, Libraries and ENFO.

To Enter Website enter www.askaboutireland.ie in the URL or Address Box.

READING ROOM
Library content can be searched using the Central Search Box. Refine search by place or use advanced search options.

ENFO
Environmental Information now available on Ask About Ireland

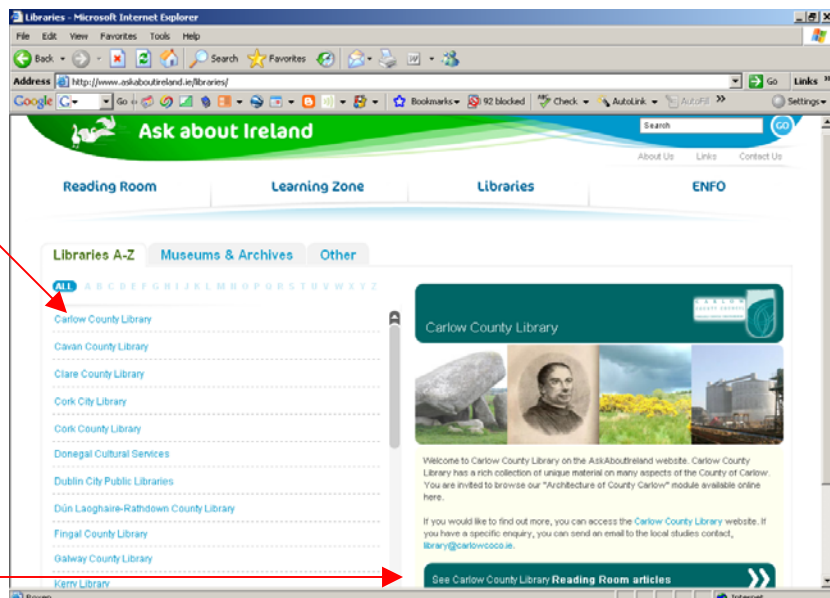

LEARNING ZONE
This section includes content developed specifically for Primary and Secondary School students.

LIBRARIES
Search by specific Library (ie Carlow) and view all Reading Room content.

To Search for articles or information on Carlow County Libraries Click on the Libraries tab.

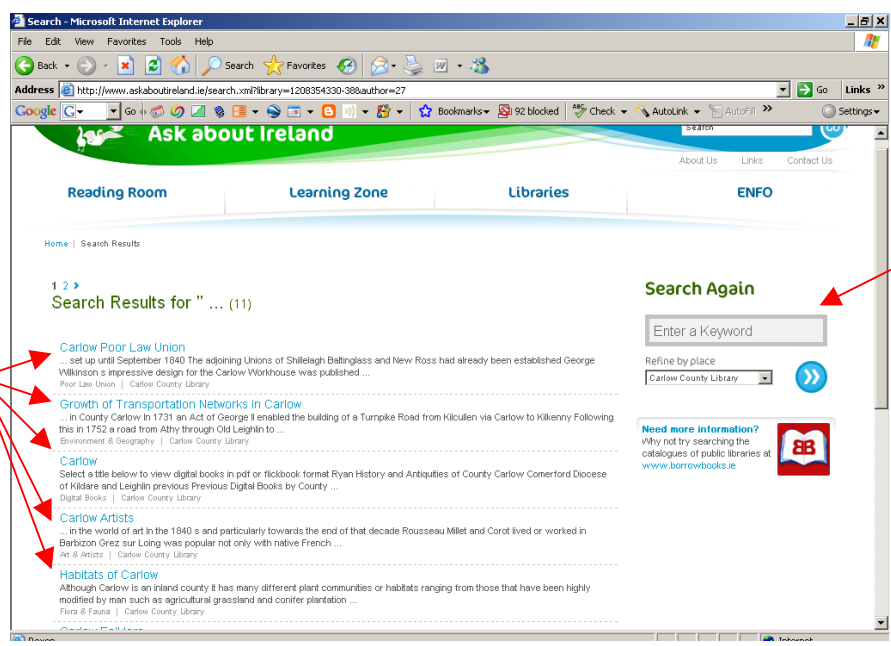

Click on Libraries and an A-Z of Libraries is shown Click on Carlow County Library and the Carlow Homepage will open on the right hand side of the screen.

Click on Reading Room Articles to view all articles on Carlow

Can Enter Keyword Search here

List of topics by Carlow Library listed click on blue writing to read more..

When you've chosen topic and clicked, the first page appears and also a content list on the right hand side of screen shows more articles contained under that topic

Added Features of the Ask About Ireland Website.

GRIFFITHS VALUATION Search Richard Griffiths primary valuation of property in Ireland from 1847 – 1864. For Genealogical Information.

PUBLIC LIBRARY Shows resources that can be accessed free of charge in your local library

SPOTLIGHT Website highlights some interesting articles here.